

Ross Quigley Youth in Sport Award

Description:

The award was created to honour the memory of the Founder of the Cobourg and District Sports Hall of Fame (CDSHF). Ross Quigley was a well-rounded athlete competing in several sports. He was a well-rounded student but not a scholar. He loved all aspects of his community and demonstrated so with his involvement and volunteerism.

Annually, two students, not of the same gender, meeting the criteria, will be chosen to receive $1000 each. The Award is intended to support the student athlete by recognizing and rewarding their athletic, academic and community achievement and involvement through financial assistance to further their education.

Students residing in Cobourg, the Townships of Hamilton, Alnwick/Haldimand and Cramahe or Alderville First Nation (the CDSHF catchment area) and attending a school in Northumberland County are eligible to apply. Criteria may be changed from time to time. The most recent application forms will be available from school guidance offices and online at cdshf.ca

Criteria:

Applicant:

- Is a graduating OSSD student
- Is residing in the CDSHF catchment area and attending a school in Northumberland County
- is active in school, community or higher sports activities as athlete, coach, official or supporter
- will be continuing their academics through, university, college, apprenticeship or other post-secondary institution and will show proof of acceptance for the fall of their graduating year
- is an active participant/volunteer in the school's community and the greater area community
- will provide a reference statement
- will provide a personal statement of a significant personal achievement and importance to you
- is available to attend the Award ceremony (CDSHF Inductee Dinner) and agrees to attendee publicity

Application Process:
